MINER IS INJURED AND MAY LOSE SIGHT

Pete Kolasky, an employee at the Haulax mine met with an accident last night that will probably result in the loss of both eyes.

Kolasky was operating a drill when he encountered a missed hole with the result that he received the full impact of the blow in the face. While his injuries to the body are not considered of a serious nature it is feared that he will lose sight of both eyes.

The injured man was hurried to the Mine Operators hospital and will probably later be taken to San Francisco to receive treatment from eye specialists.
